

I oppose any weakening of the current Indiana telephone privacy law. Pre-established relationships should have no bearing on telemarketer calls.